Recourse. From the N. T. Times.

We published yesterday a comprehensive and impressive statement of the resources upon which we may rely for the payment of the national debt. It was there shown that the productive power of this country is rar greater than that of any other country in the world—and it points out several directions in which this power may be rapidly and indefinitely increased.

It was there shown that the productive power of this country is the bouse must labouid go: I thought you wanted to get rid of me for survival than that of any other country in the world—and it points out several directions in which this power may be rapidly and indefinitely increased.
